Céad Míle Fáilte

Today, we extend warm greetings to our new Bishop of Killaloe, Fr. Fintan Monahan. At the very outset of his episcopal career, he honours us with his presence – to celebrate with us the sacred liturgy of the Eucharist, and bestow on us his blessing. In addition, he comes to pay due homage to the Quin-Clooney-Maghera Apostolic Work Society and to the outstanding achievements of its members over the sixty years of its existence. . Their record of service and unstinting loyalty to the Irish foreign missions has been magnificent.

For our Bishop (Today's Prayers of the Faithful)

For Bishop Fintan as he takes on the ministry of leadership in our diocese: bless him with the gifts of discernment and wisdom, and enable him to be an encouraging and nurturing presence among us..

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.
