Home is the Hero: In this segment alone he travelled by motorcycle from the frozen wastes of the Arctic, where he encountered temperatures as low as minus 40C, down through Canada, the US and Central America, in the tropics, where it could be as high as plus 40C. This is all part of the global adventure of Declan McEvoy, who survived various ordeals and challenges to arrive safely back in Quin, arriving last weekend (12th August). He thus completes the third phase of a daring ambition to circumnavigate the globe. Over the past ten weeks he was confronted with various challenges and dangers, though none as serious as crossing last week through the country of Nicaragua, currently experiencing serious civil unrest and revolt. Declan hopes to resume his great adventure in May next year - at Costa Rica, where he left off this time. It's only a short distance from the famous Panama Canal where the Atlantic Ocean meets the Pacific. Welcome home, Declan & congratulations

National Heritage Week Event Wed 22nd August. In keeping with this year's National Heritage week theme "Sharing stories, making connections" the Health & Wellness Centre in Carrigoran are happy to invite you to participate in a day of sharing old memories of 'Games and Pastimes from our Youth' on Wednesday 22nd August from 14:00-15:30pm. Back then, it was necessary to make the toys that you played with, so we will have examples of these on the day. Our clients and visitors will be welcome to participate in such games as Push Penny, Marbles, Spinning Tops, Pickey / Hopscotch, London Bridge is falling down, Elastics, or Blind Man's Buff! Light refreshments will be served afterwards. We are also delighted to announce that we will be launching our very own little Cookbook of favourite recipes, created from the memories of our clients, volunteers and those who use the Centre regularly. It will be on sale at the Centre for €10 on the day, and all proceeds will go towards the Health & Wellness Centre, Carrigoran. All are welcome to our free Community event!
