Holy Souls

The coloured lights on the altar today represent Holy Souls of the families and relations that were prayed for during ceremonies at the Memoriam Mass on Thursday last (16 Nov). The lamps will burn at each Mass to the end of November. Colour distribution: Quin – red; Clooney – blue; Maghera – white.

Family & Friends: If you haven’t done so already, we encourage you to submit a list of the names of family members you wish remembered in the Masses for the Holy Souls which will continue throughout the month of November in this parish.

Denis Crosby: Many people already know Fr. Denis Crosby, parish priest of Liscannor, Co. Clare (Diocese of Galway). He is a man of great charisma, wisdom, artistry and scholarship. On Saturday next, 25th November, 10am to 3pm, at Carrigoran Wellness Centre, Newmarket-on-Fergus, he will conduct “a day of contemplation and exploration”. It should be a joyful experience. Cost €20 (covers lunch, etc.). Essential to book today with Anthony Lenihan 087 6163492 or Maureen Kelly 087 2890942,

Transition

Many thanks to the parishioners who turned out in great numbers last week (Friday 10th Nov) at the Community Centre in Quin to express their thanks and good wishes to both Fr. Iggy McCormack and Fr. Tom O’Gorman, arising from the recent change in local church leadership. On behalf of the parish, the Apostolic Society presented beautiful gifts, and both priests responded appropriately. John Wall, chairman of the Pastoral Council, was an excellent MC. A special cake was cut and everyone stayed on to enjoy the party and the company of neighbours.

Prayer Around Our Coasts:

Join tens of thousands on the coasts of Ireland on the Feast of Christ the King, November 26th (next Sunday) at 2.30pm to pray the rosary for the protection of life and the preservation of faith in Ireland.
