Travelling Crib: Continues to go throughout the Parish from our 3 churches up until 6th of January. Just sign your name & leave contact details, then you will be contacted by the previous household/family for gathering and handover.

Brass Railings: Two brass railings have been erected in Quin Church. The Late Kathleen & Patrick Clune, Ballymarkham R.I.P. bequeathed the Parish a sum of money for us in the Parish of Quin, Clooney, Maghera. It was decided by the Parish Council to do something in their memory. After consultations and suggestions it was decided to erect the two brass railings in the sanctuary of Quin Church. Please pray for the donors

Mile Buíochas: To all who were involved in the Rededication of Clooney Church on Friday 14 December. To the Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Catherine Ryan the sacristan of Clooney Church. To the Apostolic Works society for all their assistance in dressing the altar. To all who were involved in traffic management in conjunction with An Garda Síochána. The combined choirs of Quin. Clooney, Maghera under the direction of Mary Corbett. To the teachers and students of Clooney N.S. for providing the instrumental music during the ceremony. To Pauline Conheady & Ann McNamara for collating the history and photographs that people provided for the booklet and to Kathy McNamara for publishing. To all who provided biscuits and home baking for the night. The whole night could not have taken place without the combined efforts of the members of Parish & Pastoral Councils, their families and friends. All take a bow on the true community spirit that was displayed on the night.

Christmas Confessions: Anyone wishing to avail of the Sacrament of Confession can do so on Christmas Eve from 2-3pm in Quin church.

Rededication DVD: A DVD of the Rededication Ceremony in Clooney Church is available to be purchased for €10. If you would like to purchase a copy please give your name to Fr. Tom.
