Trocaire Message for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion Ever thought of having a prayer space in your home? If not, Holy week is great place to start. The crowds in Jerusalem welcomed Jesus by waving palm. Why not use the palm that is blessed today at Mass to welcome Christ into your home? Invite family members to join you for a short prayer when placing the palm in the prayer space. Over the next few months, continue to grow your own personal prayer space by introducing religious items, pictures and symbols into this sacred place in your home. Trocaire collection will be taken up this year on Good Friday 2nd April. There is a special white envelope with purple top in your box enveloped for this collection. We also ask that all Trocaire boxes be returned at this time .Thank you for your generosity to our brothers and

Holy Week & Easter message

Dear Parishioners,

As we journey yet again with another Holy week and Easter season with restrictions, we journey this year as a people with great hope. With thanks to doctors, Scientists and Researchers there are now vaccines available for the virus, but we have to wait patiently to receive it. In the meantime we continue to care and pray for one another during these anxious days of waiting.

As we walk through Holy week with the ceremonies we think and pray for all who have been affected by the Corona Virus. We think of family members and friends who are in our hospitals, and nursing home, the lonely and isolated. We continue to pray for those who mourn the loss of a loved one and can't receive the support of the community that is always there when a loved one dies. We continue to show solidarity with our front line workers who continue to work tirelessly through this pandemic providing for all our needs.

Holy week invites us to stop and reflect on the love God has for us in letting His Son die for our sins and the promise of new life. We enter Holy week with the Hosannas! Of palm Sunday, the institution of the Holy Eucharist on Holy Thursday which sustains us, to the great pain and suffering of Calvary on Good Friday. This journey brings us forward to Easter Morning with a renewed and reawakened joy and hope that the Risen Christ brings to a broken world.

Peace is synonymous with the Easter joy because Christ assured us of his peace in the upper room. Our World today is searching for peace-the same kind of peace that Christ wished for us. Freedom from violence, darkness, stress and heavy burdens. Let us not walk like the disciples on the road to Emmaus but see God in our present lived situation. The promise of Jesus on Easter Day is that light overcomes the darkness and He is with us on every step of life's journey to be our Hope, our strength and our way.

Mary Mary our Mother, who prayed silently on the way to Calvary continue to intercede for us and lead us to the Risen Lord.

Thought for the week

When faced with a seemingly insurmountable difficulty, close your eyes and picture it as a boulder in your path. Then picture God's hands rolling it out of the way. What is impossible for us is nothing for Him.

“THE TIME IS ALWAYS RIGHT TO DO WHAT IS RIGHT “
