New Volunteer Ministries in the Killaloe Diocese: The Diocese of Killaloe is developing openings for two new lay volunteer ministries in the Diocese. Training programmes for the Ministry of Catechist and the Ministry of Pastoral Care will begin in the Autumn. These new ministries, open to women and men, will be of interest to those already involved or those wishing to be more involved in the life of their local Church community. They will involve lay people working in side by side with priests in key ministries in parishes and pastoral areas. Brochures are available at the back of the Church or on the Diocesan Webpage. Further information and application forms can be found at <https://www.killaloe-diocese.ie/ministry-opportunities-in-the-diocese-of-killaloe/>

MARY'S MEALS BACKPACK COLLECTION is taking place in the Quin area until mid-August. Mary's Meals provide healthy meals every day in school to over 1.2 million starving children in third world countries who would otherwise be deprived of an education and a gateway out of poverty. A gift of some basic supplies in a schoolbag, such as colours, school stationery & copies, will ensure that a child receiving Mary's Meals has everything they need for school. For more information, see marysmeals.ie/get-involved/the-backpack-project. Cathy Nihill is the local contact for collection in the Quin area. Please contact Cathy Nihill @ 087 1374184.

Declan's Journey: The intrepid Declan McEvoy continued his marathon travels in Central America this week. He crossed the southern Mexican border into the Yucatan Peninsula and is now headed further south to Belize, Guatemala, El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua, intending to conclude this phase of his marathon at Panama. However, Nicaragua is a source of concern as current civil unrest makes it quite hazardous for travellers. He hopes to join an escorted group through the country on August 5th. All his friends in Quin wish him safe journeying.
