Buíochas

A sincere thanks to all who were involved in the preparations and putting together of the Celebration of Our Parish Family and all in Ministry Day, that was held on Saturday 22nd June last. We thank Bishop Fintan for taking the time out of his busy schedule to be with us. To all members of the combined choirs who sang at the Mass, the readers, sacristans, and servers. A huge thank you to Sarah McGowan who did the art work on our new Ministries Banner and D2 Print, Ennis, for producing the final product. A sincere thanks to Fergal Lynch and the Board of Management of Quin/Dangan School who allowed us to use the school grounds for the Family Fun Day. Thanks to Jimmy Maher, Paul Dillon and Paul O'Halloran who put up the bunting around the Church and school grounds. To the members of the Pastoral & Parish Councils, John Wall and everyone on his Whatsapp group who contributed to the organising of the Parish Barbecue and events that took place on the day for the families and children. We thank Carol O'Neill and the Quin & Tonic Choir who organised the spectacular Mid-Summer Concert that took place on the night. The day was a huge success and everyone involved should take a bow for a an event that displayed the true community spirit that exists within the Parish.

Ibricken Lodge in Spanish Point will be open during the Willie Clancy Week this year with the aim of reaching out to people through music and song. The FCJ Sisters are running an Open House for the week from 1.30pm-10.00pm each day. Each night will close with a Celtic Prayer (preferably outdoors). For 3 of the days, Deirdre Ni Chinéide (sister of Mary Kennedy RTE Nationwide), will give 2 presentations per day, on Celtic Spirituality, using Irish music too. Anyone who plays music is welcome to come along and play. All of these events are free and anyone who wishes is invited to drop in, enjoy the music and touch into the spiritual along the way. It is an Alcohol free event and anyone under 18 is requested to be accompanied.
