"When life is difficult or challenging, we go to Mary our mother. When we can't pray because we are tired, worried, anxious or feel alone, we turn to what is most comfortable and familiar to us: we cling to the beads of our rosaries; and through the Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious and Luminous Mysteries, we find the mystery and story of our own lives, and the peace that comes from rediscovering an old prayer form, prayed by generations before us, and from letting our heavenly mother comfort us and wrap us in her motherly embrace". (Itercom: Fr. Willie Purcell)

Quin Clooney Community Games will hold their Area Sports day this BH Monday June 6th in Quin Dangan School field starting at 1pm covering track & field events for ages 6 to under 16 with some underage novelty races as well.. 1st & 2nd place winners will go onto represent the Area in the County Finals on June 9th in O'Sullivan Park Lees road.
