The Communion of Saints

The Communion of Saints refers to the fellowship or community that exists between all the members of the Church - the saints in heaven, believers on earth and the souls in purgatory. Death can’t sever the ties that bind the members of the Church, because the soul is immortal and only the body can die. So we believe that the ties and connections that link us together in this life continue in death. Our beloved dead are still connected to us in this life. Even though the body is dead, the immortal soul is still very much in existence.
 When we pray for our dead, we are praying for the release of the Holy Souls from Purgatory, those who have died in grace, but who have not yet made full atonement for sin.
